A New York special to the Baltimore American of yeaterday says:

"Dr. Talmage announced from his pulpit today to a congregation numbering several thousand persons that $110,000 had been raised towards defraving the floating debt of the church, and that itinsured his remaining as pastor. At the official announcement by Dr. Talmage that the cash had been raised the congregation applauded alloudy. The cheers were repeated a moment later when he declared that he would remain as pastor. The scene was strikingly impressive as the large congregation stood waving their handkerchiefs and clapping. When the applause had subsided Dr. Talmage shall reach the floating debt. Russell Sage still holds a mortgage on the tabernacle of $125,000. The creditors accepted 23 per cent, of their judgments. Dr. Talmage held a levee at the conclusion of the services and received congratulations."

For the first time in a number of years the entire family was seated around the cheerful family board and were happy in the fact that they were all once more in the fatter's house. The Rev. Dr. Hemphill read most impressively Burns's touching lines, "John Anderson, My Jo, John," and then in behalf of his brothers and then in behalf of his brothers and the entire family was seated around the cheerful family board and were happy in the fatter, the entire family was seated around the cheerful family board

A very severe wind-storm passed over Richmond between the hours of 9:30 and limbs torn from them and the dust and carried pell-mell in every direction. People returning from church found walking the rain and the gale soon passed by.

The alarm of fire during the midst of the tempest caused considerable excitement, as it was known that a blaze, unless discovered at 9:30 oclock in the residence of Mrs. L. M. Yancey, No. 402 east Main street, and amounted to the burning of a pair of window-curtains, valued at about $5, which had blown across a gas-jet in the bath-room.

Later in the night fire was discovered at the dwelling of Mrs. L. and the selection of the bride, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. John Douglas, then pastor of Purity Presbyte-rian church. Their entire life has been passed in this town. All wish that its setting may be as serene and happy as its long course has been blessed and honored.

Brought to Hollywood.

A well-attended meeting of the Junior Hollywood Memorial Association was held yesterday afternoon in the board-room of the Young Men's Christian Association, with Miss May Raughman, the president, in the chair. Final arrangements were made for the reinterment on Thursday at 5 o'clock of the bodies to be removed from Drewry's Bluff to Hollywood. Dr. Moses D. Hoge has accepted the invitation to hold the services, and it is hoped that Rev. Landon R. Mason will be able to make a short address. The Ashby Light Horse and a detachment from Lee Camp will act as escort. The reinterment will be in accordance with military funerals.

Arrangements have been completed for the Juniors on Memorial-Day. Three hacks have been engaged for the officers and chairmen of the association, and the boys will march in a body immediately behind the Lee-Camp veterans.
